Prise de parole en public

1. Be authentically yourself.

2. Don't do everything. Do one thing in a great way.

3. Story is king...

4. Be sensory.

4. Think about the power of three.

5. The jargon is death.

6. Surprise your audience...

7. Be heroes (vulnerable).

9. Do something scary before your presentation.

10. Put yourself in someone else's shoes...

11. Do what makes you feel like a tough guy...

12. Accept to be afraid.

Reassure, encourage, celebrate

One last thing...

“Your number-one mission as a speaker is to take something that matters deeply to you and to rebuild it inside the minds of your listeners. We'll call that something an idea.”
